

Wake Tech iPads

The iPads should be rotated so the sound buttons are visible when the iPad is closed. Then the back camera will be accessible.

When returning the iPads to the storage case, the home button should be closest to the top so they can be easily recharged.

When using:

Use the home button to return to the home screen. Double click the home button to see all of the apps that are currently open. At the end of your time, double click then slide each app up on the screen to close it.

Home screen:

Clock: You can use the clock as a timer to control the time each person uses the iPad. Click on clock then choose timer from the bottom of the page.

Bottom of the screen:

Bitsboard pro: Vocabulary....Games...Phonics... All levels

Pick a title then click on the square that has the game for it (puzzles, story time, sort it, word chunks, unscramble, review game, missing letter, say it)

Grammar: Past/present verbs

Level 3 and higher

We only have access to past and present verb lesson/activities

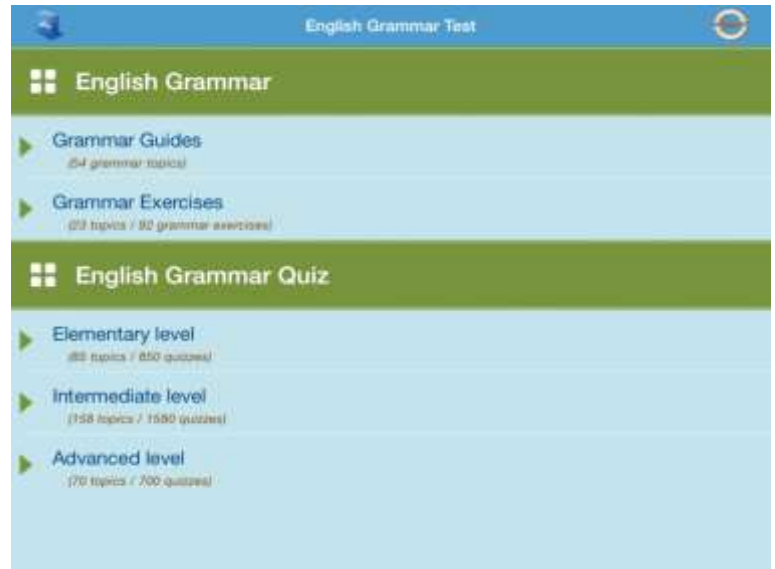

Safari: This is the search engine to use internet. Make sure you are connected to internet using Setting...Wifi. If it does not say Garner UMC, touch wi-fi then choose that connection on the right of the page. Then click the home page.

Puffin: Has app or website links

Grammar folder:

- English Grammar Test: level 4+
Grammar exercises & Elementary quizzes: Good for levels 4 and higher.

- Comparative: lower levels
Listen and pick the comparative word. Trial and error helps to self-instruct. It will only respond to the correct answer.

- Phrasal verbs: Higher levels
Gives Spanish (or choose language in settings) translation of phrasal verbs with examples. Set up like a game or machine. Has instructions in settings.
Exercises make you watch an activity and choose the correct phrasal verb to describe it.

- Help Words: Low to mid-levels for word order and spelling
Pick a level 1-7 then a category (words or sentences) Default target (desired score) is 12 but they can pick up to 99. You can choose activity.

- Phrasenstein: Higher levels
Same idea as Phrasal verbs.

- Criteria: Prepositions Vol. 1: explanations, no activities All levels
Swipe the pages to the left to advance. The first few pages are instructional.
Page 5 starts the visual explanation of prepositions.
Page 15 starts the visuals with sentences that you can click on to listen to and read along.
Page 23 starts some detailed explanations of people for levels 5+

- Criteria: Prepositions Vol. 2 & 3: similar to above with different details Note: level 3 didn't work on my ipad

Listening folder:

- Learn English by Listening: Levels 2+
Click on the level then the story that you want to listen to/read. Click on "show article" so you can read along. You can find stories for many different topics and grammar needs.
NOTE: The stories are not organized by level. Some easy dialogues are in level 6.
NOTE: This program has trouble working sometimes, but other times it works fine. You never know. The students do like to listen and read along for practice annunciating. They can pause, play, and rewind to control what they want to focus on.

- Interview Highest level students
Video with audio focus. Explanation of how to prepare for an interview, then a checklist, then some practice.

- Sounds: only for people who know how to use IPA

- AE Course: Level 3+
Listen to the dialog (you can stop and rewind as needed) and then answer the questions about it. They do talk fast. It has topics we cover to review with students like leaving a message, the family, and telling the time.

- Crazy English: Level 2+

Similar to Learn English by Listening, it is easier with sentences and phrases. It also has problems with working sometimes, and not others.

- Speak English! (see right) All levels...even level 1

VERY good because it has common words, phrases, and conversations AND it can be slowed down for students to practice more easily.

Speaking folder:

- Learn English: All levels

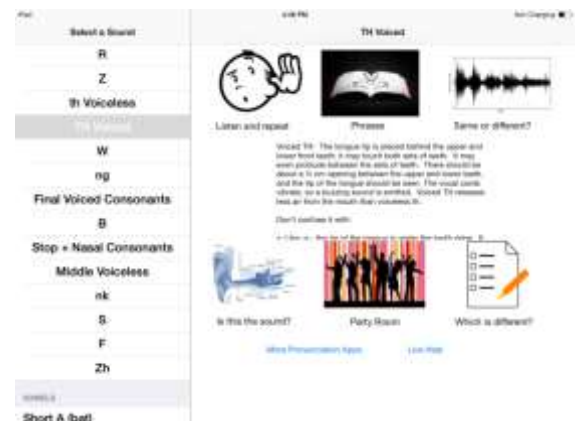

Use Speak or Sentences to listen to the sentence until you are ready to repeat it. Then touch the record button to speak and again to stop. You can see color coded results of how you speak compared to the model. It is not perfect, but helps students self-correct.

- Phonics Studio: Low levels

Pick the letter of the alphabet to practice. Decide if you want practice as initial sound, medial, final, or as blends. Click what you choose then Let's Go. Touch the picture to listen, then click the record button to record yourself. Then play to listen. You can self-check with a check or x. Swipe to the next word until you are done.

- American English: all levels

Pick a sound that you want to practice, like "th" or "z" (vowels offered too). Then choose the activity, "listen and repeat", "phrases", "same or different", etc. Party room has a number of words at the same time and you have to distinguish the ones that you hear.

- Phonics Genius:

low levels

It should allow you to listen then record, but I could only listen. You can customize for specific sound focuses.

Vocabulary folder:

- OPD: All levels

This is an interactive dictionary that lets you pick a topic, tap for the word that matches the picture and the audio will say it for you. It also has tap for Spanish.

- Cambridge English Vocabulary:

All levels

This has elementary, pre-intermediate, and upper-intermediate levels. Many different types of activities to practice writing, identifying, and using words in sentences.

- Idioms:

Mid-level students

Explains then tests idiom use.

American English Idioms: Needs internet connection

- Translate:

All levels for first language support.

This has a visual aspect to point camera to translate or speak and then it will translate.

- Word lens: All levels for first language support

Amazing!!!! point the camera at a document and it will transform the words to the language you choose as you watch the camera. Try it or you will not really see how amazing it is. Warning: It is not completely accurate, but very cool!

Writing tools folder:

for all levels

- Notes: All levels

Allows students to write notes or words by typing or even by speaking. Start by tapping the square with the pen picture (top right) To speak, press the microphone button on the bottom left of the keyboard. When a line appears, begin to speak.

- Pages: Higher levels

To write a page of information. This can be used to type notes, write a friendly letter or create another type of document. The student would need to have access to their email account to be able to save the document for future use.

Books folder: N/A

Sharing folder: N/A

Music Audio folder: N/A

Photos Video folder:

- Camera: All levels

Students can swipe the bottom right until the dot is on video. Then they can record themselves presenting anything they need to practice. They can replay and check their progress. They can video their creation of specific sounds to see if they are producing the sound (ex. th) as they should and then make adjustments.

Default apps folder:

- Calendar: All levels

Turn the calendar to the month view (on the top of the page). You can use the calendar to discuss days of the week, holidays, etc. to match your learning objectives. Students can fill the calendar on their ipad with activities by tapping on the days and adding details then compare and discuss schedules with peers to practice.

- Maps: All levels

Maps can be used (with internet access) to give directions.

Trial apps folder:

- Grammaropolis: Mid-level

Identifies parts of speech and details of the parts of speech. It follows a map to define the part of speech, shows a video, has a little book and has quizzes. As a sample, it only teaches nouns.

- TED: Higher levels

Find videos on a wide range of topics for students to practice comprehension or learn specific skills.

Vocabulary Spelling City

All grades

This app has vocabulary development for k-high school (SAT words) so it can help a range of students' needs. The middle grades are theme specific, but the lower have common words and the 11th grade has SAT