Your rights at work

The information in this activity kit is based on the CLEO publication called Your rights at work. Read the publication before using the activity kit, and keep it on hand for reference as you guide learners through the activities. You can find it on CLEO's website at www.cleo.on.ca. To order free copies for your class, you can use the online order form or call 416-408-4420.

Please take note

Ontario's Employment Standards Act (ESA) is a law that outlines the rights of employees and the responsibilities of employers. The ESA sets minimum standards for working conditions. Many employers offer better.

The information in these activities applies to most but not all workers. Not all jobs are covered by the ESA, and in some cases only parts of the ESA apply. Some industries, such as banks, airlines, trucking, and broadcasting, are regulated by the federal government.

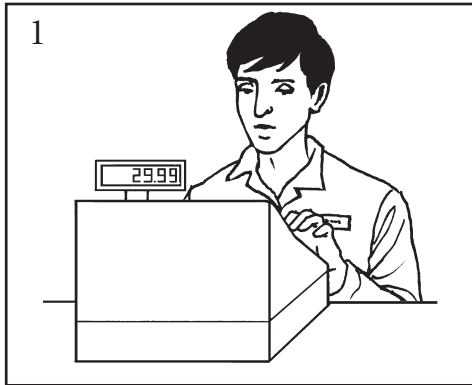

Immigration status does not matter. You do not need to be a Canadian citizen, permanent resident, or holder of a work permit to be covered by the ESA.

The information in these activities is not a substitute for legal advice. Every situation is different so learners with concerns should get legal help. They can contact their local community legal clinic. To find the nearest community legal clinic, you can go to www.yourlegalrights.on.ca and click on "Services". You can also go to the Legal Aid Ontario (LAO) website at www.legalaid.on.ca or call Legal Aid Ontario toll-free at 1-800-668-8258.

Minimum wage: Four workers (pages 2-3)

Ask if any learners know what minimum wage is and why it is called minimum wage. You may wish to introduce the concept of “minimum” with a situation in which lower than minimum is not OK (for example: minimum height requirement to ride a roller coaster) or not legal (minimum drinking age, minimum driving age) and then explain that it is also not legal for an employer to pay less than minimum wage. Explain that minimum wage is set by the Ontario government, and may go up each year depending on the rate of inflation. On April 1, the government announces any increase in minimum wage rates to take effect on October 1. Minimum wage rates can be found at:

www.labour.gov.on.ca/english/es/pubs/guide/minwage.php

Answers:

- A. 1. b 2. c 3. d 4. a

Name	Job	Location	Wage
Diego	cleaner	office building	$11 an hour
Sanjeev	cashier	store	$10.30 an hour
Aster	waiter	restaurant	$9.55 an hour
Simy	homeworker	home	$12.10 an hour

 3. What is her wage?
 4. Where does he work?
 5. What does he do?
 1 and 5 have the same meaning.
 2 and 3 have the same meaning.

E. Go over the questions for discussion as a whole class, to ensure comprehension. Learners can discuss in pairs or small groups. You may need to distinguish between homeworkers, who do paid work in their homes (other examples include stuffing envelopes and telemarketing), and domestic workers, who work in an employer's home, usually as nannies or caregivers.

Diego's pay stub
(pages 4-5)

Explain what a pay stub (or statement of wages) is and that Diego's employer must give him his pay stub on or before his payday. Stress the importance of keeping pay stubs and other records.

You may want to discuss different methods of payment, such as cash, cheque, and direct deposit. You may also want to point out that there are different pay periods and that a 2-week pay period is common for many kinds of work.

Elicit what learners know about deductions. You can also teach "deduct" and "subtract".

Answers:

- C. 1. Romero 2. August 16 to August 29, 2015
 3. 2 weeks 4. $11 an hour 5. Yes
 6. 80 7. Yes 8. $748.46

Vacation pay
(page 6)

This activity introduces the concept of vacation pay. Most people are entitled to at least 2 weeks' vacation earned by working 12 months for the same employer.

Answers:

- A. 1. Sanjeev gets paid every 2 weeks.

 Or:
He works 30 hours every 2 weeks.
 4. He works part-time.
 5. He gets vacation pay.
 6. His vacation pay is $12.36.
 Or:
His vacation pay is 4% of his wages.
